

They look for Eve but instead it's KEELAND.

KEELAND
I figured you'd be up here. (To June) Hey Mrs. Hampton.

JUNE
Keeland!!! How are you?

MOON
Kee!?!? What you doing up here?

KEELAND
I couldn't get through to you on your phone, so I figured you were up here. And now I'm here.

Keeland and Moon take honest looks at one another. This means a lot to both of them. June notices the connection.

EXT. THE SUMMER HOME - POND

Keeland and Moon sit and look out over the pond. There's so much unsaid. Keeland tries to break the ice. Gently.

START →

KEELAND
Do you want to talk about it?

MOON
No.

KEELAND
Well, you're going to have to at some point.

MOON
That's why I came up here. No phone reception. Nobody. Nothing. Just me.

KEELAND
You can't stay up here forever Moon.

MOON
You know how many muckfuckas is in my DM's. Tagging me in Bill Cosby meme's and shit.

We see a quick flash of the meme.

KEELAND
That shit was funny as hell.

MOON

Hilarious.

(Beat)

I honestly didn't think I did anything wrong. I actually thought the chick was fly as fuck. Talking about her dreams made me remember mine. (He begins to get emotional) I wasn't trying to #metoo nobody man, I was just trying to fuck. Make her like me. Fuck her like she want to be fucked - but there's the balance between pleasure and pain and nobody tells you how to measure either. Black women want to be seen as individuals, but judge us all the same. They want to pretend like they virgins when you first meet and then a year into a relationship they want you to pick them up throw them on the bed and grab them around the necks. Remember that time Alyssa slapped the shit out of me when Faith had just started doing those wine events? Everybody just looked at me like, "what the fuck he do." If I would've hit her: "He's abusive. Leave him. Call the cops." (Pause) We're celebrated for our power and when we use it and people can't take it - #metoo. I support this moment - definitely want women to have their moment, I just never thought I would become the moment.

KEELAND

What got me was the fact that, when I initially heard the tape - I didn't see what the problem was. I'm serious Moon, I didn't even know.
Cause.....
..... I've done it too.

MOON

I think we all have. And worse, but I think men believe that's how were supposed to be. Aggressive and strong...

KEELAND

...if you not, they calling you soft and weak.

MOON

Give me a moment man.

END →

Moon gets up emotional and leaves to return to the house.